

OMN

Oh... My Name...

If this statement ... is really ok, then put YOUR name there instead ...

DOWN with OMG & UP with OMN ...!

This writing is actually intended to be both Encouraging and Inspirational. However, let's start with the problem first...

What is the problem with taking the Lord's name in vain? What are we really talking about? If you do a Refresh on the Ten Commandments [aka 'The TEN ...', Exodus Ch. 20], then you note that ...

the 3rd one states:

"You shall not misuse the name of thy Lord God, for the Lord will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses His name."

For anyone who does use the OMG exclamation, you have to ask..., what does that sound like from God's point of view? Isn't this a gross misuse of God's name? And when someone tries to claim that it's ok, what's really in our hearts at the time? If your heart is not in a worshipful state, proclaiming God & His greatness & holiness, then what is really happening in God's eyes?

What is really being proclaimed here? With God also listening, are we being God-honoring? Think about that 3rd Commandment again. Encourage folks to use OMN or nothing at all.

Summary Thot:

We need to consider all this & return back to the careful & worshipful regard for God. Not just His name & how to carefully watch our language... but also our heart & attitude as we make our way closer to Eternity, day by day. For those who Believe.... that Glorious Eternity awaits!
